canada: a love story

i hosed the world but the shit still stuck: AMA!

une soumission postulée envers le saint salut que fut ce sous-lu lorsque j'étais plutôt perdu, sur le site "internet" (lire: toile) je l'ai lu. (poetry more seductive than even trinity!)

> — némésis par conformité malicieuse de l'orifice québécois de la langue française

(ya deux gars dans marde ensemble jusqu'au cou, quand yen a un qui s'acclame "oh, shit!" fak l'autre y demande "bin kessé qu'ya?" pi y répond "on va mourrir..." alors l'autre y dit "comment ça!?" pi l'premier admet "j'ai envie d'chier" - 🌈 merci tant, chère matante! 💩) if you can't tolerate these jokes, i dare say: you're neither close enough to understanding your spirituality nor learning to partake in the wondrous canadian cultural melting pot.

51st state... pff. more like mid-north-american rescue territory of canada (divided with mexico and cuba... denmark too - many of you get a real king again). we promise you microbrews and truly free healthcare (fresh out of housing - sorry), but we keep all the maple syrup to ourselves! deal?👐

pretty nice roads down there though 👍 care to redo all of ours as migrants?
except in dc. not enough poop was used between the roads and your vacantly spectated war parade... "not enough gold...mine more gold." his answer? "deck me out" while only promising "glittering prizes"... but why not both? because cheats go to the games.

all together now: "no, I'M spartacus!"
get in line yo, i was here first. one at a time in an orderly fashion, unlike 1814-08-24, and whichever americans want to help out sure can.

no more damage than 1 slap per human, though, and no fires this time: canadians have suddenly gotten sensitive with regards to fires... obviously corporations already do what they want, so for them anything's fair game.
